

Thought for the day 12th June 2020 from Sam Corley

In place of the usual thought for the day this morning we offer you the first of Sam Corley's thoughts on books from the bible. Sam Corley is the Rector of Leeds based at Leeds Minster and is a fab person. He's doing an excellent series of daily reflections, summarising each book of the bible and pulling out it's main message. He does it in a very engaging and entertaining way with some bizarre props to help him. The first, Genesis, can be found at the link below. If you like it, why not watch the whole series – the bible in 66 days! Enjoy!
