

Thought for the Day 15 July 2020 from Heston Groenewald (All Hallows)

1 Samuel 2:12-26 Luke 20:1-8

OOOH a reading about priestly people – using (abusing) their divine authority power and privilege for self-gain.

And OOOH a reading about Jesus the great high priest – showing that true divine authority power and privilege is all about self-giving rather than self-serving.

I could write reams about this!

But instead here are 26 words to challenge and inspire us priestly people (1 Peter 2:9 – in KJV ‘peculiar people’!) as we exercise the authority and power and privilege God gives us...

Before we can pray
'Lord, Thy Kingdom come'
we must be willing to pray
'My Kingdom go'
